

Beyond Wealth Advisors Soars High in Wings for Water 2024

Lee's Summit, MO. – September 14th, 2023 - Beyond Wealth Advisors, a committed supporter of clean water initiatives, proudly participated in the Wings for Water 2024 competition, held at Paragon Star in Lee's Summit.

For the third consecutive year, their dedicated involvement and enthusiasm contributed to the event's grand success, with a total of over $30,000 raised for clean water efforts this year. The cumulative funds raised by Wings for Water now amount to an impressive $116,000 since the organization's inception in 2017.

Beyond Wealth Advisors' unwavering support for Wings for Water underscores their dedication to making a positive impact on the global water crisis. This year's competition, which saw the participation of 48 teams and an estimated 4,000 guests, demonstrates the community's strong commitment to the cause and the power of collective action.

Wings for Water's mission is to provide clean and safe water to underserved communities around the world, and the funds raised in this year's competition will contribute significantly to this vital cause. The event's success is a testament to the efforts of the community.

Wings for Water remains committed to expanding its reach and making an even greater impact on clean water initiatives worldwide. The overwhelming community support at the 2024 competition reinforces the belief that, together, we can bring clean and safe water to those who need it most.
