

Beyond Wealth Advisors Welcomes Summer Intern Cody Blevins

Lee's Summit, Mo. – June 16, 2020 – Beyond Wealth Advisors today announced the addition of summer intern Cody Blevins to its team. Cody's duties will include a research project to assess exchange-traded fund investment opportunities, a client prospect outreach campaign and assisting in the financial planning process for BWA clients.

"We're pleased to support Cody as he sets course on his journey to become a financial planner," said Beyond Wealth Advisors Partner and Chief Investment Officer, Dennis Bacon. "Cody's fresh perspective and analytical skills will be very beneficial in our efforts to provide top quality client service and fine-tune some of our processes to support our clients' long-term financial objectives."

Cody is pursuing a Bachelor's degree in the CFP board-registered personal financial planning program at the University of Missouri-Columbia with plans to graduate in August 2020. He was a member of the Financial Planning Association, having served as its Treasurer during the 2019-2020 school year. Cody was also a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and volunteered as a VITA program tax preparer.
