

Beyond Wealth Advisors Helping the Locals Spread the Good News

Harrisonville, MO, September 12, 2024 – Beyond Wealth Advisors had the privilege of teaming up with Harvest Baptist Fellowship Church to assemble over 5,000 Bibles, which will be sent to Mexico for distribution. This collaborative effort marks an important step in supporting communities where access to scripture is often limited, and BWA was honored to contribute to such a meaningful cause.

In many regions of Mexico and Central America, the need for Bibles is great, especially as Christianity continues to grow. Economic barriers prevent many families from purchasing Bibles, particularly in rural and underserved areas, where local churches rely heavily on donations. Beyond the financial challenges, language diversity presents another hurdle, with over 60 indigenous languages spoken in Mexico alone. Bible translation projects play a crucial role in ensuring that these communities can read and understand scripture in their native languages, making the work of organizations like Harvest Baptist Fellowship Church vital to spreading God's word.

The BWA team was deeply moved by the opportunity to work alongside members of Harvest Baptist Fellowship. The shared passion for spreading the gospel and impacting lives left a lasting impression on everyone involved.

"We are honored to have been included in such a special project, one that brings lasting impact to the community," said BWA Financial Advisor, Kelley Manning, "We look forward to future opportunities to partner with Harvest Baptist Fellowship Church and to continue making a positive difference."

This project has inspired Beyond Wealth Advisors to continue seeking ways to give back and support both local and international communities. Working with Harvest Baptist Fellowship allowed the team to connect with like-minded individuals, reinforcing the shared mission of spreading God's word to those in need. As BWA reflects on this rewarding experience, the firm remains committed to future partnerships that bring hope, support, and spiritual nourishment to communities worldwide.
