

Beyond Wealth Advisors Lee's Summit Participates in Raymond James Cares Month

Lee's Summit, MO – May 12, 2023 – Beyond Wealth Advisors proudly participated in Raymond James Care Month in a meaningful way this year by partnering with Pro

Deo Youth. Over the last six years, Raymond James associates have contributed more than 36,800 hours of service during our official month of giving back. This year, BWA worked alongside Pro Deo Youth in numerous ways.

They were honored to serve 15-20 teens for a special graduation celebration. This was a particularly special event, as five of the teens were graduating from three different local high schools. BWA wanted to ensure that this was a memorable occasion for all, and so they provided a delicious dinner and dessert for the group. They were delighted to see the smiles on the faces of the teens as they enjoyed the meal and celebrated together. To make this event even more special, they designed posters to celebrate each of the five graduating seniors, as well as providing individual grad gifts. They hope that the posters and gifts will serve as a reminder of their achievements and the support of their community as they move forward in their academic and personal journeys.

In addition, BWA also had the opportunity to wash two 15-passenger vans, which needed a good detail after many adventures. They took great care to ensure the vans were thoroughly washed, including cleaning the windows, wheels, and tires. By doing so, they made the vans look and feel like new, so they would be ready for their next exciting journey.

Pro Deo is a supportive community that offers after-school and Friday night programs for teens to grow into productive adults while having fun in a safe environment. They provide opportunities for teens to set goals and offer the necessary support and accountability for success. Their mission is to build a legacy of excellence by empowering teens to dream and achieve.

One of the staff members asked a student if they were surprised and the student responded saying... "Uh yeah, I've NEVER had that many cheer for me before!"

What a testimony for the difference that BWA was able to make through this service project!

Dr. Elaine Metcalf, executive director shared a heartfelt message to our team after the amazing dinner and senior celebration Friday night to encourage the BWA team by saying, "Thank you for making Pro Deo Youth Center's senior celebration so special! Wow....just wow! I am grateful for your kindness to the Pro Deo teens."
